April-May, 2016 Spring Used Book Sale

Members only (presale): Friday, April 22 4 - 7 p.m.

Public: Saturday, April 23 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sunday, April 24 (bag day), 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.

It's That Time Again!

Just finished the last page of your last novel from our Fall Book Sale? Get ready to refill your shelves! Thousands (and thousands) of titles are currently being sorted, packed, and stacked for our upcoming used book sale. Once again, we'll offer a wide variety of fiction and non-fiction categories - including children's and vintage books.

As usual, the sale will be located in the Thomas M. McKee Hall at The Ranch (Larimer County Fairgrounds). Members of the Friends of the Loveland Library are invited to attend the pre-sale on Friday, April 22, from 4 - 7 p.m. (If you're not yet a member, you may purchase a membership at the door to take advantage of that preview date.) As a courtesy to our shoppers, we ask that booksellers not use scanners during these special Friday hours.

Our sale is open to the public on Saturday, April 23 (10 a.m. - 4 p.m.) and again on Sunday, April 24 (11 a.m. - 3 p.m.). Sunday is designated as "bag day" - fill a standard-size plastic grocery bag with books (except vintage) for only $5. Larger bags priced accordingly.

Children through 12 years of age who attend the sale may select one free book of their choice from the Children's Area. Otherwise, children's books are priced at $1. (Continued on p. 2)

Spring Used Book Sale

See you at the sale!

And last but not least: We need you! Volunteers are welcome for all phases of the book sale. If interested, please consult our volunteer coordinator via the Friends Website. (See p. 4 for specific details!)

Don't Miss Pints for the People - April 27

Loveland Aleworks is honoring Friends of the Loveland Public Library by donating $1 for every pint sold from 6 - 11 p.m. on Wednesday, April 27. Loveland Aleworks is an independent, family-owned brewery offering a selection of small batch, handcrafted beers. Owner Nick Callaway creates a range of beers inspired by traditional European and American craft beer styles. Loveland Aleworks brews with love and donates to many non-profit groups through its Pints for the People evenings. We look forward to seeing you at Loveland Aleworks, 118 W 4th Street on April 27!

Meet Our New President

Hi, I'm Kathy Keeler. I was elected President of the Board by the Friends Board of Directors at the February meeting. I started with the Friends in 2009. First I helped at a used book sale... Then I started sorting at The Sorting Place on Wednesdays and then helping on Tuesdays during the presort.

After my second used book sale I said, "The romances are not organized. How can anyone find anything?" And so, I became in charge of romances at the sale, alphabetizing them. That is an important feature of volunteer organizations and one that never fails to amuse me: if you have a good idea, well, we're all volunteers here; make it happen!

I was elected to the Board in 2011 to fill out a 2-year term and then reelected for a full 3-year term. On the Board I got involved in all sorts of Friends' activities beyond the used book sales. I was Board Secretary last year.

The Friends is a big volunteer organization, with continuous and complicated activities. My plan as President is simply to help with everything the Friends do. The one thing I will try to change; that is, to improve is communication. Volunteering is fun. Pitching in on Friends' activities is fun! But you can't be there if you didn't know it was happening. I will try to reach you all with all the methods available to me so you know what is coming.

And please, this is an organization comprised of the members. If you have an idea for improving communication, let me know and we'll see what we can do. Just because I'll first ask "do you want to make that happen?" doesn't mean you have to say yes. Of course that applies beyond communication; if you have a good idea for the Friends, share it!

Outside of the Friends, I have a small business, A Wandering Botanist, talking and writing about plants, travel and history (<http://awanderingbotanist.com>). It's a one-person operation and keeps me very busy. Before coming to Loveland, I was a professor of biology (plant ecology) at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln for 31 years. My Ph.D. is from the Genetics Department at the University of California Berkeley. I met Karl Anderson while I was in graduate school. We have been married 40 years. What we particularly like to do together is to travel.

2015 in Review at the Annual Meeting

The room was packed for the 2016 Annual Membership and Volunteer Appreciation Meeting on January 29. Participants enjoyed a delicious Italian dinner and were treated to a short preview of the Mystery Night at the Library. The Library staff gave a nice overview of all the activities of the library – which we all know is a place “Where You Can”. The Friends’ board provided a complete written summary, its committee activities and financial reports which you can find on the Friends’ website. You can also request a complete copy by emailing folloveland@gmail.com.

It was a busy year for the FOL! Throughout the year, the Art Selection Committee participates with library staff and board members in choosing art for the library. The art changes quarterly and features Colorado artists.

The new Book Cart at the Library was a huge success. It contains samplings of donated books for sale and is located in the Library foyer. Buyers participated using the honor system that resulted in a profit of $2500 for 2015.

The community participated enthusiastically in Loveland Lights last December, enjoying the lights, music, Christmas trees and gingerbread house competition. Loveland Loves to Read celebrated another successful event with author Kent Krueger, adding profit to the balance sheet. Membership continues to grow with 200 new members and over 300 renewals in 2015. The Sorting Place remained a busy spot in town last year, processing a record 105,000 books received and boxed for delivery to the semi-annual book sales. More records were set at the book sales in 2015 and shoppers enjoyed a number of new and fun incentives.

As always, none of the Friends’ activities would be possible without the dedicated volunteers who provided nearly 10,000 hours of enthusiastic and loyal work.

As a result of all this effort, the Friends enjoyed an excellent 2015 financially. Income exceeded the budget by $17,000 while expenditures were about $21,000 below budget. The extra income came primarily from the used book sales. Savings were realized across the board but particularly in Loveland Loves to Read event. This resulted in our ability to propose a 2016 budget with a $16,000 deficit without tapping any of the pre-2015 reserve balance. Our non-designated reserve is about $194,000. The board feels this is an appropriate cushion due to uncertainties regarding future fundraising initiatives.

It’s awesome to a part of the Friends of the Loveland Public Library!

Annis Askew Volunteer of the Year Award

The Friends of the Loveland Library created a new tradition to recognize one of our outstanding volunteers each year. The Board established the award in the name of Annis Askew and honored her as its first recipient at the Annual Membership Meeting in January.

Annis has been a vital contributor to the Friends since the 1990’s, heading up the Used Book Sales for many years. Annis served on the Board of Directors and assumed the office of Treasurer before the Friends even had an official bank account. In recent years, she has maintained an active role at the Sorting Place every week and at our semi-annual Used Book Sales. Her cheerful smile and tireless energy are the hallmark of Annis’s commitment to volunteerism.

The Annis Askew Volunteer of the Year Award Plaque will contain the names of future winners and will be on display in the library.

Used Book Sale Volunteers Needed

Our Spring Used Book Sale is coming soon and many helping hands are needed to make it a success. Please call Annis Askew at 970 669-6318, or email her:

annis.askew@gmail.com, or send a message through our website that you are willing to join us. The sale runs from Friday, April 22 through Sunday, April 24, but we need able bodies to help with loading trucks and transporting the books, setting up the tables and books, beginning Wednesday April 20. During the sale, there are options to tally books, to cashier (must have training on the cash registers and credit card scanners), to direct shoppers to their desired area or answer their questions and straighten up the tables throughout the sale. We especially need helpers Sunday after the sale to rebox the books, take down tables and load everything up to return to the Sorting Place. Warning! You will no doubt find more than a few books that you absolutely must have--& you can't beat our prices!

If you have any of the following, we need you! Your skills don't have to be expert and you don't need to bring lots of experience – we just need people with enthusiasm and a desire to help.

- Website skills – to help us improve and maintain our website.
- Social media skills – to help us manage our Facebook and Twitter presence, along with wherever else we should be in cyberspace.
- Public relations skills – to help us promote the Friends' organization in a thoughtful, attractive and effective way.
- Interest in helping with publicity for our semi-annual book sales.

Contact Kathy Keeler at khkeeler8@gmail.com or Ann Marie Rozum at hipshot99@aol.com to explore any of these opportunities.

Mystery Night at the Library a Huge Success!

Over 100 people became sleuths for a night as they wrestled with the unfolding drama of the death of a distinguished guest author attending her book-signing event in the library. A talented cast presented an entertaining light-hearted drama with plenty of clues to determine whodunit, why and how. It was up to the audience to examine the evidence and the crime scene and question the suspects to determine the guilty party.

Thanks to our wonderful volunteers who participated in planning and assisting in this new fundraiser for the Friends: to the committee, to Kate Colby, director of the drama and her amazing cast, and to all who brought delicious snacks and desserts or helped that evening with setting up, serving and cleanup. We depend on our wonderful volunteers like you. Funds raised for this event will help sponsor the Summer Reading Program for children and teens at the library.

We hope to see you next year!

What in the World is Wild Apricot?

Because our organization is growing, the board saw a need to improve its recordkeeping and lighten the efforts of our hard-working volunteers. On March 7, after using the online system on a trial basis, we committed to using Wild Apricot (<http://wildapricot.com>) for this purpose during the next year. Wild Apricot comes highly recommended by library friends' organizations throughout the country.

We'll begin using Wild Apricot to take membership enrollments and renewals. Online payments can be made by credit card, Paypal. We will also continue to accept checks via traditional mail. We'll use the system to manage events, including registration and payments. Wild Apricot has many other capabilities including hosting discussion forums, publicizing volunteer opportunities and email messaging. Personal information will be handled with maximum security.

We'll provide more detailed information, including how to access and use the system when we get Wild Apricot up and running. In the meantime, if you have any questions or an interest in helping to maintain the site, please contact Kathy Keeler at khkeeler8@gmail.com.

Library News

Money Smart Week

Created by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago in 2002, Money Smart Week® is a public awareness campaign designed to help consumers better manage their personal finances. All classes at the library this week are free of charge.

Which Financial App is Right for You? April 19 at 6:30 p.m.

Curious about using a financial or budgeting app? We will review and compare several popular apps to help you know their costs, features, and options.

Adult Program Highlights

If you want diversity, the library is the place to visit. Free programs too numerous to mention in detail are offered. Be sure to look for the rack cards and flyers at the library or check out the events calendar on p.10-11 or at www.lovelandpubliclibrary.org. The comedy film series is on the fourth Monday of each month and World War I films are shown on April 19 and May 17. Look for crafts, music, nature, couponing, discussion and war programs in addition to the sessions described below.

Adult Program Highlights

Another session on Estate Planning held May 17 at 6:30 p.m. will cover the basics of wills, trusts, powers of attorney, probate in Colorado, and beneficiary designations.

A number of genealogy programs presented with the Larimer County Genealogical Society are featured this spring including an introductory class, April 2 and an intermediate session on May 14 taught by Pat Johnson. Bob Larson will offer a program on the Popular DNA Tests on April 23. Register for these sessions at www.lcgsc.org. Pat Johnson is also offering monthly Beyond the Basics sessions featuring naturalization records April 20 and taxation records May 18 with no registration required.

Travel is another hot topic with the Wandering Botanist Kathy Keeler headed to Argentina and Chile at noon on April 6 and Australia on May 11. Laura Daily with Mile High on the Cheap will discuss travel deals at 10 a.m. on April 9. The Ordinary Couple Travels program will be April 13 at 5:30 p.m.

Summer's Coming

Get your mind and body in motion this summer with events, prizes, games and badges for all ages at Loveland Library's 2016 Summer Reading Program! This year's theme is health/wellness/sports and we've got lots of fun challenges, engaging presenters and awesome incentives.

The program will kick-off on June 1 with family activities from 3 - 6 p.m., a teens-only party from 5:30 - 7 p.m. and an evening of live music for adults. Back by popular demand, iMake (a drop-in library makerspace for ages 0-10) will offer hands-on technology, crafts, and play all summer long, while weekly elementary programming will focus on science, sports and health activities. Teens can get in the game with cosplay, gaming, tech and cooking programs while adults can exercise their minds with a relaxation program and a citizen mapathon.

All ages can log points, earn digital badges and unlock games online. Best of all, reading isn't the only way to participate! You can volunteer and experience things in your community, such as going to the Loveland Museum, attending a festival downtown, or visiting one of our local parks, to earn points, badges, and prizes.

Kids can earn free books and a yard sign that announces "A Reading Champion Lives Here"; teens can earn coupons to local businesses and technology prizes, and adults can qualify to win one of two Kindle Readers. Sign-up for Loveland Library's annual summer reading program begins May 1 online at <http://loveland.readsquared.com>. So what are you waiting for? On your mark, get set, read!

Seeking Library Volunteers

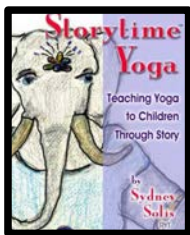

Are you looking for a fun way to get involved this summer? The Children's department at the Loveland Library is looking for Reading Buddy volunteers to play the Kids Read game at the Library. The Kids Read game is fun to play and easy to learn. Training is provided. Volunteers are needed on Tuesdays & Thursdays from 10 - 11 a.m. or on Wednesdays & Fridays from 1 - 2 p.m. The summer Reading Buddy program runs from June 6 until July 28 and we are happy to schedule around your vacation plans. One hour training sessions are planned for Tuesday, May 17 at 12:30 p.m. or Thursday May 26 at 1 p.m. If you are interested or want more information, please contact Cynthia Slosson at cynthia.slosson@cityofloveland.org or call 962-2758.

Children's Programming

During the Thompson School District's Spring Break, April 4 - 8, there will be a variety of special events in the children's division. Monday's School Out Science will feature Nature's Educators talking about animals native to Colorado at 2 p.m. At 10 a.m. on Tuesday the focus will be on Rocky Mountain National Park. Anyone who brought in books in March can participate in the Book Swap on Wednesday, April 6 from 3 - 5 p.m. The regularly scheduled Buddy Reading and Chess Club groups will not meet during spring break but storytimes will continue on the regular schedule.

ONEBOOK4COLORADO is a statewide literacy effort that provides a free book to any 4 year old. Books will be distributed to some local childcare centers and preschools as well as the library. Be sure to visit the library April 18 - 29 if there is a 4 year old in your family.

A special event will be a Family Yoga storytime with Sydney Solis Saturday, April 30 at 11 a.m. Wear comfy clothes to participate. Storytimes, Buddy Reading, Waggin' Tales, Brickmasters and other programs for children can be found in the inserted calendar or online. 962-2587.

TeenSeen Happenings

In addition to the ongoing sessions including TeaInk, Robotics, Anime Junkies and Chess Club, youth ages 11-17 will design custom mugs on April 14 at 4 p.m., paint a pot and plant a succulent on April 18, at 2 p.m., compete with peers by unwinding a taped candy ball at 3:30 p.m. on April 19, make greeting cards just in time for Mother's Day on May 5 at 3:30 p.m. and make seed bombs May 20 at 2:30 p.m. 962-2548.

I Opened a Book

"I opened a book and in I strode.
Now nobody can find me.
I've left my chair, my house, my road,
My town and my world behind me.
I'm wearing the cloak, I've slipped on the ring,
I've swallowed the magic potion.
I've fought with a dragon, dined with a king
And dived in a bottomless ocean.
I opened a book and made some friends.
I shared their tears and laughter
And followed their road with its bumps and bends
To the happily ever after.
I finished my book and out I came.
The cloak can no longer hide me.
My chair and my house are just the same,
But I have a book inside me."

Mystery Night at the Library

March 12, 2016

Prop Manager Ursula Wooten & Stage Manager Brooke Gardner discuss stage directions.

Detective Sam Slayed (Cory Husser) questions book critic Page Turner (Kate Colby).

Cast rehearses their shock at discovering the crime scene.

Holly Trenary & Rick Padden rehearse their roles as Agatha Mystry, famous mystery writer and Dell Doubleday, her publisher.

The table is set for the perfect murder.

The audience anticipates the opening scene of Mystery at the Library.

Librarian Lotta Books (Carrie Thompson) hosts famous mystery writer Agatha Mystry at her book signing party in the library.

Steve Wright (Dalton B. Walden, Agatha's fiancé) and Aria Squires (Kim Kashigin, whose husband is having an affair with Agatha) study their lines.

Kim Kashigin attempts to convince the audience of her innocence of the murder of Agatha Mystry.
