ONLY PREVIEW SALE

Memberships may be purchased at the door.

Saturday, October 22, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Sunday, October 23, 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.

$4.00 Plastic Grocery Bag Sale

Location: Thomas M. McKee 4-H Youth & Community Building at "The Ranch"
Larimer County Fairgrounds & Events Complex, I-25 and Crossroads
Blvd. (Exit 259), Loveland, CO

We are expecting to have 50,000 books in 50+ categories, along with music CD's, DVD's, VHS tapes, books on CD and cassette tape and other non-book items. Prices for children's books are 25¢ to $1.00. Teen and adult books are $1.00 to $2.50. A section of Vintage, Treasures and Collectible books will be available at separate prices. On Sunday, all books and non-book items will be available for the price of $4.00 per plastic grocery bag full, including some Vintage, Treasures and Collectibles.

Children 12 years old and younger will be able to pick out a free book of their choice from the Children's section.

As part of our Going Green effort, we ask our patrons to bring their own plastic, paper, cloth, reusable shopping bags or boxes to the sale.

If you are able to help with driving a rental truck, loading, unloading, setting up, sale day responsibilities, closing, or cleanup, please call Barb Franke at 203-0904.

You may drop off your donations on or before Wednesday, October 5 at The Sorting Place, 1010 West 10th Street. Donations will resume on Wednesday, November 2.

WE DO NOT ACCEPT: Business and computer books older than 3 years, college textbooks, Reader's Digest Condensed Books, encyclopedias, or magazines of any kind. Due to copyright laws we cannot accept copied music CD's, videos, or DVD's.

Books that are missing pages or covers, have broken spines, water damaged, warped, stained, moldy, soiled or gnawed on by pets or children, should be taken to the Loveland Recycling Center, located at 400 North Wilson Avenue.

After the sale, volunteers will be cleaning and organizing The Sorting Place on Wednesday, October 26. Receiving donations and regular sorting will resume on Wednesday, November 2.

For additional information, call Roberta Moyer at 970-669-6570 or 970-214-8300, (leave message on voice mail).

Loveland Loves to Read: An Evening with C.J. Box

Please join us for the eighth annual Loveland Loves to Read author event. Blue Heaven by C.J. Box is our selected book for the One Book—One Community read. Various book clubs will be discussing this non-stop thrill ride of a book prior to C.J. Box's appearance at the Rialto Theater on November 2 at 7:00 p.m. The evening will feature C.J. Box discussing this Edgar Award-winning book and his experiences as a successful mystery writer. The audience will be invited to submit questions for the author who will also autograph books after the program. Tickets are $5.00 each and can be purchased at the Rialto box office.

On Wednesday, November 3, join us for a catered luncheon event at the Garden Room, 697 Denver Ave., Ste. 100, at 11:30 a.m. Mr. Box will be joined by two other well-known mystery writers, Sandi Ault and Bonnie Ramthun, for a lively discussion of their career struggles and successes. Cost for the luncheon is $35.00. Reservations can be made at the Friends website (www.friendsofthelovelandlibrary.org) or by calling Peg Isakson at 970-227-7127 after September 1. Reservations must be made by October 18.

Anthology Book Co. will have books available for sale at both events.

Book Club discussions of Blue Heaven include:

- ♦ Loveland Library (Janice Benedict): 10/27 at 7:00 p.m.
11/1 at 9:00 a.m.
11/1 at 7:00 p.m.
11/2 at 9:00 a.m.
- ♦ Anthology Book Co. (Teresa Martinez): 11/16 at 6:30 p.m.
- ♦ Chilson Senior Center Conference Room (Treva Heiser): 10/28 at 1:00 p.m.

Loveland Loves to Read Annual Writing Contest

In conjunction with the One Book—One Community Author Event, the Loveland Loves to Read Committee is again sponsoring a writing contest. Our book selected for this year is Blue Heaven by C.J. Box. So summon your mystery writing muses and contemplate the following scenario: Imagine that you (or your character) witness a crime, and then...

Entries must be 500 words or less, double spaced, single-sided, with your name, address, phone number and email address on a separate sheet from the submitted story. Complete details and entry forms are available on the Friends website (www.friendsofthelovelandlibrary.org) or at the Library's reference desk after September 1. Entries must be received by October 7.

The grand prize will be $100 and the winner will be invited to join C.J. Box for dinner at the Inglenook prior to his appearance at the Rialto on November 2.

Friends of the Library Delivers BIG Check to City Council

Everyone at the July 19 City Council meeting was in a celebratory mood as the Capital Campaign Committee of the Friends of the Library presented the proceeds from its successful fundraising campaign to Mayor Cecil Gutierrez. Under the direction of campaign co-chairs George Franke and Rose Anne Wheeler, the multi-year Expand the Library - Enrich the Community project resulted in a two million dollar donation for the expansion and renovation of the library. Many individuals as well as businesses, nonprofits, corporations and foundations contributed to the eight million dollar project which includes 25,000 square feet of new space as well as a makeover of the existing building.

South Seas Summer Supper Party

On a beautiful Saturday evening in July, the Friends of the Library sponsored a South Seas Summer Supper Party for the Library staff and their guests, the Library Advisory Board, and the Friends of the Library Board. FOL Board Member Anne Marie Rozum and her husband Gary hosted the party in their lovely home. It was wonderful to have so many of the people who are dedicated to the Loveland Public Library together for this special evening.

A delicious supper was served. And for dessert, the guests enjoyed a delicious cake, decorated to say "Librarians Rock", which we certainly know to be true.

Working in the library while an addition is being built and the rest of the library is being renovated is not an easy task. The Friends of the Library Board wanted the library staff to know that they are truly appreciated for both their work and their endurance. (See page 11 for party photo)

Thank You to Three Outstanding Volunteers

This summer we have had the privilege of having three young people help with a variety of activities at The Sorting Place. They have labeled shelves, taped boxes together, sorted and packed books, helped with recycling efforts and cleaned rooms.

We want to thank Mary Askum, Jane Bashford and Patrick O'Brien for their many hours of dedication to help The Friends of Loveland Public Library Foundation, Inc.

Where And When Can I Donate Books?

There are two large blue donation bins located outside The Sorting Place at 1010 West 10th Street. You can drop off donations any time Monday through Sunday. These bins are for donations only. You will need to return your checked-out library materials to the library. If you need a tax receipt, please drop off your donations on Wednesday from 10AM to 2PM.

Gingerbread Challenge is "On" for December

The Friends' annual gingerbread creation competition event will occur at the Library on the first weekend in December. Begin now to plan your entry in the competition. All skill levels are welcome, from inexperienced to expert, children, teens, family, and adults. Register your interest by calling Laura Krebill (970-669-7406) or George Franke (970-203-0904). Instructions and entry forms will be available in October.

Friends Of the Library Volunteer Information

Volunteers are the HEART of the Friends of the Loveland Public Library. Yes, the Friends have over 330 members whose membership donations contribute to the on-going support of the Library, but our volunteers greatly extend our capabilities to advocate for and support the library. If you are not already involved as a Friend of the Library volunteer, please consider it. Fill out the "Volunteer Information" insert in the newsletter this month and return it to the Friends at the Library.

Even if you are already a volunteer with the Friends, please fill out the new "Volunteer Information" form. With the successful end of the Capital Campaign for expansion and soon-to-be complete renovation of the library, new and different volunteer tasks are sure to be on the horizon! The more information we have about your experience, skills and preferences, the better "match" we can make for willing persons and volunteer tasks.

Volunteer Coordinator

Library News

Open but Not Quite Settled

On August 15, the new addition to the library opened to the public after a busy week of moving collections and offices and setting up new spaces and services. Anyone who has not visited the library since the 15th should come in to view the new spaces.

As soon as boxes and furniture were moved out of the offices on the north side of the “old” library, contractors began gutting the space to demolish and renovate. New demising walls went up quickly to isolate the area from the new spaces and the south half of the old library. Near the end of October, the south half of the old building will be renovated with the entire project scheduled to be finished in December or January.

Most of the children’s area is complete and storytimes will return to Mrs. Runschmunkel’s Reading Room with Sheldon James’ expanded mural in place. Encourage your teens to visit the designated teenseen area with a gaming center, group study room and new computers as well as the teen book and media collections. Look on the calendar or elsewhere in this newsletter for more information about teen events.

Patrons shouldn’t have to wait long to access an internet computer in the new iExplore center that has 48 public computers. Computer classes in the 15 PC iLearn lab have not been scheduled yet, but watch for more information soon.

Planning for a grand re-opening celebration the week of February 18, 2012 has already begun. But don’t wait until then to check out the exciting new spaces and services.

New Spaces, New Staff & Need for New Volunteers

To manage the new 25,000 sq. ft. space, a few new part-time staff members have been hired. Jessica Sherman who was a substitute librarian a few years ago has returned to Colorado.

With her background in elementary schools, Jessica is looking forward to her position as a Librarian I in the Children’s Department and to working with the entire LPL staff.

Bobbi Benesh will be a new aide in the library’s IT department. She has 12 years of experience in public, private, and school libraries - wearing many different hats and working in many different departments. Michelle Turner is the new aide in the teenseen. With several years of experience in education and the arts, Michelle is excited to share her love of literature with young adults. Michelle earned a Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing and is currently working on a book of poetry.

New Spaces, New Staff & Need for New Volunteers

Library staff is also looking forward to training new volunteers to help with welcoming and greeting people into the new space and also helping with behind the scenes tasks. If interested, contact Assistant Library Director Marcia Lewis (962-2404) or sign up on the City's volunteer web page at www.cityofloveland.org/index.aspx?page=90.

Adults or teens 16 years old and older are needed to assist at-risk elementary age children with reading and art projects at the Maple Terrace Apartments' Kids Club Wednesday afternoons from 4:00 – 5:30 p.m. through the school year. Volunteers must have their own transportation to this location at 23rd and Maple Street.

Please call Cynthia Slosson, Children's Literacy Outreach coordinator, at 962-2758 and leave contact information on her voice mail.

Tasty Fundraiser

Once again Loveland's Runza Restaurant will host its Great Books for Great Kids fundraiser. A percentage of all sales at Runza on Tuesday, September 27 will be donated to the library to purchase children's books. Runza is located at 2204 North Lincoln.

Genealogy Resources in Northern Colorado

On Saturday, September 17, the Larimer County Genealogical Society is presenting a workshop featuring librarians from regional libraries who will outline resources available to people doing family history research. The workshop is in the Gertrude Scott Meeting Room at the Loveland library from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and is free of charge. Attendees are asked to register at www.lcgscsco.org so that presenters will know how many handouts to bring.

Books to Talk About

The Adult Book Discussion Groups will continue to meet the first Tuesday of each month at 9 a.m. and at 7 p.m. and on the following Wednesday at 9 a.m. The September selection is The Old Gringo by Carlos Fuentes. The Old Gringo, translated from the Spanish, includes a real-life mystery: what happened to American writer Ambrose Bierce when he disappeared in the revolutionary Mexico of Pancho Villa in 1913? Fuentes explores this mystery in his examination of "the borders between men and women, dreams and reality, Mexico and the U.S."

The October book is Sarah's Key by Tatiana de Rosnay. On the anniversary of the roundup of Jews by the French police in Paris, American journalist Julia Jarmond is asked to write an article about this dark episode and embarks on an investigation that leads her to long-hidden family secrets and truth that begins to heal.

All sessions will be in the library either in the Gertrude Scott Meeting Room or in the Erion Community Room which is at the top of the stairs/elevator. Contact Janice at 962-2402 for additional information.

It is also time to start reading this year's Loveland Loves to Read book selection, Blue Heaven by C. J. Box which will be discussed November 1 & 2.

Authors & More Authors

This fall Loveland Public Library will be presenting programs featuring authors Laura Resau and Ron Franscell as well as Colorado poet laureate David Mason.

At 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 20, Fort Collins author Laura Resau and co-writer María Virginia Farinango from Ecuador will discuss their teen novel, The Queen of Water. This novel which is based on a true story begins in an impoverished Andean village where seven-year-old Virginia is taken from her indigenous family to be an unpaid servant. With a background in cultural anthropology and ESL-teaching, award-winning author Laura Resau has lived and traveled in Latin America and Europe. Her experiences inspired her other novels for young people-- What the Moon Saw, Red Glass, The Indigo Notebook, The Ruby Notebook and Star in the Forest. Adults and teen are invited to meet these two amazing women.

On Wednesday, October 5 at 7 p.m., poet laureate David Mason will read his poetry. Mason, named Colorado's sixth poet laureate in 2010 by Governor Ritter, is an accomplished poet and co-director of the creative writing program at Colorado College. Mason's verse novel, Ludlow, won the Colorado Book Award and was featured on the PBS News Hour.

Ron Franscell grew up in Wyoming. A life-long journalist, he worked for newspapers in Wyoming, New Mexico, California and Colorado before moving to San Antonio, Texas. His books include fiction (Angel Fire and mysteries, The Deadline and The Obituary) and true crime stories (Fall: the Rape and Murder of Innocence in a Small Town and The Crime Buff's Guide to Outlaw Texas). His new book, Outlaw Rockies, should be available when he is at the Loveland Public Library on Wednesday, October 12 at 7 p.m.

At each of these free programs, books will be available for sale and autographing.

Noontime Nature

Naturalist Kevin Cook continues his Nature Sleuthing series of programs the first Tuesday of each month. On September 6, Cook will present "The Case of the Homeless Trees"; his program for October 4 is "The Case of the Gang of Six". Attendees are invited to bring a sack lunch and enjoy an hour discovering the story related to a natural mystery.

The nearest relatives of the trees featured in Cook's September program grow several hundred miles north in the Black Hills. But in our area, they grow in just one of the countless ravines that crease the foothills where Great Plains and Rocky Mountains meet. They weren't even discovered until the early 1900s. Obviously birches, the trees pose two intriguing questions: what kind of birches are they, and how did they get in that ravine?

Noontime Nature

Big flies slowly wander through your house when autumn's chill arrives. They belong to the Gang of Six, a group of wildlife — tree, earthworm, fly, snake, bird, mammal — that represents a puzzle of historical geography. Was the Gang of Six here at the time of settlement, or did people change the Colorado lifescape enough to allow the Gang to settle here just as we did? Find out on October 4.

Teens: Be Seen in the teenseen

New and returning events are planned for the new teen area of the library. Teen Game Nights, the last Friday of each month from 6 to 8 p.m., Anime Junkies and DIY Projects are returning events.

A special new four month program is the Teen Writers' Workshop that will meet the second Wednesday of each month from September through December at 4 p.m. Teens who are in 6th to 12th grade (ages 11-18) and who love to write can join the Teen Writers' Workshop, meeting every 2nd Wednesday of the month from 4 to 5 p.m. in the teenseen area. Practice your skills and learn new techniques in the areas of poetry, fiction and creative nonfiction. Sessions will be led by Michelle Turner who holds a Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing. No registration is required; just bring your passion for writing and a favorite notebook or journal. For additional information, contact Michelle at turnem@ci.loveland.co.us.

On October 21 and 28 and for two weeks in November, CSU history professor Dr. Robert Gudmestad will present programs focusing on sports and the impact they have had on American culture.

The sessions are held on Friday afternoons from 2 to 3 p.m. and are designed for homeschooled high school aged students.

Teen Advisory Board meetings are held the third Wednesday of each month at 3 p.m. Teens interested in planning the programs in the teenseen area are encouraged to attend a meeting or call Teen Librarian Beth Gudmestad (962-2548) to learn more.

Children's Department Events

Besides the new space, the biggest changes in the children's area are the new times for the preschool and toddler storytimes. All storytimes will begin on the hour with the toddler storytimes for ages 2 ½ -3 on Tuesdays at 11 a.m., Wednesdays at 10 a.m. and Fridays at 10 and 11 a.m. The preschool storytimes for ages 4 – 7 are on Tuesdays at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and Wednesdays at 11 a.m. Miss Kris will be presenting all storytimes in Mrs. Runschmunkel's Reading Room in the new children's area.

Humpty Dumpty Storytime for children ages from birth to 2 ½ years old with an adult caregiver will be held on Mondays at 9:00 or 10:00 a.m. and Thursdays at 9:00, 10:00 or 11:00 a.m. These programs will also be held in Mrs. Runschmunkel's Reading Room. (Continued on p.11)

Children's Department Events (cont'd.)

Brickmasters, the monthly LEGO creation program is held the second Saturday of each month with two sessions. The first session is from 10 a.m. to 12 noon; the second session is from 1 to 3 p.m. All LEGO enthusiasts ages 5 and up are invited to use Legos to create items that will be displayed in the library during the month.

The Children's Department will host a big LEGO building event in the Gertrude Scott Meeting Room on Saturday, September 24 from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.

This one-time event will be the beginning of an actual LEGO league tournament. The event will involve the sorting and assembly of kits and is strictly for seasoned LEGO builders, ages 9 and over. The event's official title is First LEGO League Field Kit Build Day at the Loveland Library. For more information, contact the Children's Department at 962-2587.

South Seas Supper Party preparation stops for a moment as host Anne Marie Rozum (center) poses with her FOL Board helpers: Jennifer Blythin, Gemmy Brown, Sharon Rein and Barb Franke
